

Three rooms on the water at Eton, and Windsor Castle across the river.

MARKETING STRATEGY

10 Eton Thameside, 15 Brocas Street, Eton, Berkshire SL4 6FB

PREPARED SEPTEMBER 2026

This is a position, not a floor plan.

Your home is not advertised everywhere. It is advertised where it matters. Nobody buys 1,887 square feet at this level because of the square feet. They buy a duplex sitting directly on the Thames, with balconies over the water and Windsor Castle in the view; Eton High Street at the end of the road, Windsor over the bridge, and a train from Windsor & Eton Riverside that runs straight into Waterloo. That is a very particular buyer — someone leaving a larger house nearby, someone wanting a second home on the river, or someone who wants the Thames Valley with London still within reach. The campaign is built in two parts so each is approached on its own terms.

TWO AUDIENCES

One campaign along the Thames and into London, one for buyers abroad.

CHOSEN MARKETS

Five markets, weighted heavily toward Berkshire and London.

TAILORED CREATIVE

Six advertisements built for this home, in six shapes, for every screen.

REPORTED TO YOU

A full account of where your home appeared and how buyers responded.

DAYS

Over thirty days your home will be advertised in five markets, most of the effort inside Berkshire and London. Six advertisements have been built for it, in six shapes, each a slow pass over the river frontage, the open kitchen and reception room, the balconies and the bedrooms behind them, closing on the address and an invitation to arrange a viewing.

ONE FIGURE TO FOLLOW

The plan set out here is settled. The one figure still to come is the number of impressions — the number of times your home is put in front of someone — which is confirmed once the campaign is under way.

IMPRESSIONS

To be confirmed

Along the Thames, and from further afield.

10 ETON THAMESIDE · £2,150,000 · 3 BED · 3.5 BATH · 1,887 SQ FT

The two run side by side, over the same thirty days, as a single effort. The larger one reaches buyers already living along the Thames and in London; the smaller reaches buyers abroad who look to England for a home on the river. They do not overlap, so the same buyer is not shown your home twice.

	ALONG THE THAMES	FROM OVERSEAS
WHO IT REACHES	Buyers leaving a larger house nearby, and Londoners wanting a home on the river within easy reach	Buyers abroad who already look to England, and to Windsor and Eton by name
WHERE IT RUNS	The Royal Borough of Windsor and Maidenhead and the wider Thames Valley, and west and central London	Dubai, Hong Kong, Singapore and New York
HOW BUYERS ARE FOUND	By where they are, and by whether they are actively looking at homes of this kind	By where they are, and by whether they are looking at homes in England
LANGUAGES	English	English
SHARE OF DELIVERY	The greater part	The lesser part
HOW OFTEN SHOWN	To be confirmed	To be confirmed

Most of your buyers are already on this river.

The greater part of the campaign stays close to home: the Royal Borough of Windsor and Maidenhead, the SL postcode districts around Eton and Windsor, and out along the valley through Maidenhead, Ascot, Datchet and Marlow — then into west and central London, where the Waterloo and Paddington ends of the journey are understood without explanation. That is deliberate. A three-bedroom duplex with two parking spaces is bought by someone who already knows this stretch of the Thames: leaving a larger house in the area, or keeping a London life and wanting the river at the end of it. The remaining effort goes abroad, to four cities where Windsor and Eton are recognised by name and a home on the Thames needs no argument. A wide national footprint across Britain would be the wrong shape for this home, and it is not used.

The work, as buyers will see it.

Six advertisements, in six shapes, built for the computer, the tablet and the telephone. Each moves slowly across photographs of the home over fifteen seconds, then closes on the address and an invitation to arrange a viewing. The price is not shown, as is our practice.
